Report

On Wednesday, 21st June, the yoga demonstration was organized in accordance with the significance of International Yoga Day. A lecture by Mr. Sagar Gade on yoga and human health was arranged. Yoga holds great importance for individuals of all ages as it promotes knowledge and good health. By practicing yoga asanas, everyone can maintain their mental and physical well-being, and it has proven to be effective against various disorders and helps in controlling the mind, leading to a happier and healthier life. Therefore, it was emphasized that everyone should practice yoga. On the occasion of International Yoga Day, on 21st June, all the professors, staff members, NSS, NCC, and sports department students participated in the Common Yoga Protocol, following the prescribed yoga asanas. During this time, Mr. Sagar Gade provided information about the asanas, and Meenakshi Salunkhe demonstrated the asanas.

The program was attended by the Principal Dr. Shirish Pingale, Vice Principal Dr. V.D. Kulkarni, Dr. Sanjay Shinde, Registrar Mr. Kailas Pacharane, all professors, staff members, NSS, NCC, and sports department students. Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap initiated and introduced the program, while Prof. Pratima Lonari and Dr. Ganesh Dhumal expressed their gratitude.

The program was organized by Prof. Pratima Lonari, Major A.B. Kanavade, Dr. Ganesh Dhumal, Prof. Prabhakar Jagtap, and Dr. Kirti Nitnaware.

REPORT

On 27th June, a lecture was organized in commemoration of World Anti-Drug Day at 11.30 am. The event aimed to raise awareness about the dangers of drug abuse and promote a drug-free lifestyle among the NSS volunteers of Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, Rajgurunagar.

The lecture commenced at 11.30 am with a warm welcome extended to all the attendees. The event began with an introductory session that shed light on the significance of World Anti-Drug Day and the importance of addressing the issue collectively. The Principal of Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, Dr. Shirish Pingale delivered an opening address, highlighting the detrimental effects of drug abuse on individuals, families, and society. The Principal emphasized the role of NSS volunteers as responsible members of the community and urged them to actively participate in creating a drug-free environment.

Subsequently, The Assistant Police Sub-Inspector (PSI) from Khed Police station Mr. Dnyaneshwar Raut took the stage to deliver informative presentations and engage the audience in interactive discussions. He discussed the various types of drugs, their impact on physical and mental health, and the consequences of addiction. Additionally, preventive measures, rehabilitation options, and support networks available for individuals struggling with drug abuse were also covered extensively. The PSI stressed the importance of community involvement and the role of NSS students as catalysts for change.

We were honored to have the presence of Dr. Shirish Pingale, Principal of the college, Prof. V. B. Daundkar and Prof. Funde, Constable from Khed Police Station Mr. Arjun Godse. The program was organized by Dr. Ganesh Dhumal, Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap and Dr. Kirti Nitanware Program Officer of the National Service Scheme.

REPORT

As a part of their commitment to environmental conservation and community welfare, the National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers unit of Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalays in Collaboration with Air Liquid Company Chakan organized a commendable tree plantation drive at Bahirwadi on 20th July.

The event, which aimed to promote greenery and ecological balance, witnessed an enthusiastic participation of 150 NSS volunteers who actively contributed to the cause. The plantation took place at various locations within Bahirwadi, including the village premises and along the roadside.

The tree plantation drive was inaugurated by Dr. Shirish Pingale, Principal, he emphasized the significance of tree plantation in mitigating environmental challenges. Dr. H. M. Jare (Principal of Sahebraoji Butte Patil Mahavidyalaya) and Mr. Kailas Pacharane, Registrar, graced the occasion and extended his support to the noble cause.

Under the guidance of NSS Program Officer, Dr. Ganesh Dhumaal, Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap and Dr. Kirti Nitaware, the NSS committee members, including Dr. Sagar Theurkar, Prof.

Nilesh Barane, and Prof. Jayashree Gogavale, NSS volunteers actively participated in planting a diverse range of trees. A total of 225 saplings, including Kadulimb (wild jujube), Naral (coconut), Badam (almond), Amba (mango), Bamboo, Sitaphal (custard apple), Jambhul (black plum), Vad (banyan), and Pimpal (banyan fig), were successfully planted during the event.

Bahirwadi village's Sarpanch, Mrs. Vasudhatai Ankush Rakshe, along with her husband, Mr. Ankush Rakshe, expressed their wholehearted support for the noble initiative and actively participated in the tree plantation drive.

The NSS volunteers took an oath during the event, pledging to protect and nurture the trees they planted, symbolizing their commitment to ensuring a greener and healthier future for Bahirwadi.

Dr. P. R. Jagtap, NSS PO, expressed his gratitude to all the participants, including the volunteers and the villagers, for their dedication and tireless efforts in making the event successful.

The tree plantation drive not only added to the natural beauty of Bahirwadi but also served as a great learning experience for the volunteers. It reinforced the significance of environmental conservation and the collective responsibility we all bear in safeguarding our planet.

REPORT

Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit and the Department of Political Science, jointly organized various competitions on the theme of "Indian Constitution" during the Constitution Day Celebration Week from November 26 to promote awareness and understanding. The competitions included essay writing, elocution, poster making, and quiz competitions on diverse topics related to the Indian Constitution. The Constitution Day Celebration took place on November 26, 2023, starting at 9:00 AM. The event commenced with the reading of the Constitution and a collective discussion on its significance. In recognition of outstanding performances, participants securing the first, second, and third positions in various competitions were honored with accolades such as rose flowers, Rajashree Shahu Maharaj Granth, certificates, merit medals, and a Constitution magazine. The Chief Guest for the program was Dr. Shirish Pingale, the Principal of the college. Dr. Ganesh Dhumal, Dr. Kirti Nitaware, all faculty members, and college staff, along with a large number of students, attended the event. The successful execution of the program was attributed to the coordination led by Prof. Rohini Patole, the reading of the Constitution by Miss Vaishnavi Panmand, and the proposal by Dr. Kailas Sonavane, the Head of the Department of Political Science. Dr. Prabhakar Jagatap expressed gratitude for the program.

During the rally, we will engage in various activities to create a meaningful impact. These activities may include street plays, awareness speeches and interactions with the local community. Please wear dress in a white top with black bottoms to represent unity and cohesion among the participants. We prioritize the safety and well-being of all participants. Kindly adhere to traffic rules, maintain discipline throughout the rally, and follow the instructions provided by the NSS PO. The necessary equipment, such as banners, placards, pamphlets, and other materials, will be provided at the venue. Please ensure their proper utilization and return them after the event.

Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, under the guidance of the Khed Taluka Shikshan Prasarak Mandal, organized various events on January 25, 2024, as part of the 14th National Voters' Day. The activities included an essay competition, debate competition, and a rally for voter awareness. The events were conducted in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS) department, the literacy class, and the tehsil office in Khed. The inauguration of the rally took place with the presence of dignitaries such as the college Principal, Dr. Shirish Pingale. Dr. Pingale emphasized the importance of citizens' active participation in the democratic process and suggested organizing diverse events through the college to increase civic engagement. The rally aimed to create voter awareness and was attended by the electoral registration officer of Khed- Alandi Vidhansabha constituency, Jogendra Katyare, assistant electoral registration officer and tehsildar of Khed, Prashant Bedse, group education officer and nodal officer (SWEEP) Amol Jangle, and the deputy tehsildar of Khed tehsil office, Ram Beje, along with other officials. The coordination of the program was managed by Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap, Dr. Yogesh Walunj, Dr. Sunita Jadhav, Dr. Ganesh Dhumal, Dr. Kirti Nitavare, and Prof. Rohini Patole. The program included a video address by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, delivered directly to the students, urging them to actively participate in voter awareness activities. The initial proposal for the program was made by Dr. Payal Oswal, and the proceedings were conducted by Prof. Machhindra Muluk. Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap expressed gratitude for the successful execution of the program. The rally aimed to emphasize the importance of exercising the right to vote and actively participating in the democratic process. Participants in the rally carried banners and placards with messages promoting voter awareness, democracy, and the significance of every vote. They chanted slogans encouraging citizens to exercise their voting rights responsibly.

REPORT

Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya, under the guidance of the Khed Taluka Shikshan Prasarak Mandal, organized various events on January 25, 2024, as part of the 14th National Voters' Day. The activities included an essay competition, debate competition, and a rally for voter awareness. The events were conducted in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS) department, the literacy class, and the tehsil office in Khed. The inauguration of the rally took place with the presence of dignitaries such as the college Principal, Dr. Shirish Pingale. Dr. Pingale emphasized the importance of citizens' active participation in the democratic process and suggested organizing diverse events through the college to increase civic engagement. The rally aimed to create voter awareness and was attended by the electoral registration officer of Khed- Alandi Vidhansabha constituency, Jogendra Katyare, assistant electoral registration officer and tehsildar of Khed, Prashant Bedse, group education officer and nodal officer (SWEEP) Amol Jangle, and the deputy tehsildar of Khed tehsil office, Ram Beje, along with other officials. The coordination of the program was managed by Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap, Dr. Yogesh Walunj, Dr. Sunita Jadhav, Dr. Ganesh Dhumal, Dr. Kirti Nitavare, and Prof. Rohini Patole. The program included a video address by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, delivered directly to the students, urging them to actively participate in voter awareness activities. The initial proposal for the program was made by Dr. Payal Oswal, and the proceedings were conducted by Prof. Machhindra Muluk. Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap expressed gratitude for the successful execution of the program. The rally aimed to emphasize the importance of exercising the right to vote and actively participating in the democratic process. Participants in the rally carried banners and placards with messages promoting voter awareness, democracy, and the significance of every vote. They chanted slogans encouraging citizens to exercise their voting rights responsibly.

Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalaya organized an event under the National Service Scheme titled 'Vikasit Bharat @2024: Voice of Youth.' The program took place on December 11, 2023, with the honorable Prime Minister in attendance. The event was broadcasted via a web link, reaching out to students and viewers. A total of 225 students and teachers participated in the program, which aimed to voice the opinions and perspectives of the youth towards the development of India. The successful execution of the program can be attributed to the efforts of the National Service Scheme Officer, Dr. Ganesh Dhumal, and Dr. Kirti Nitavare. Additionally, the involvement of Prof. Sandeep Thorat, a faculty member of the Student Development Committee, contributed significantly to the program's success. The primary objective of 'Vikasit Bharat @2024: Voice of Youth' was to provide a platform for students to express their thoughts and ideas on the development of the nation. The presence of the honorable Prime Minister added significance to the event, and the web link broadcast ensured a broader outreach.
