REPORT

As a part of their commitment to environmental conservation and community welfare, the National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers unit of Hutatma Rajguru Mahavidyalays in Collaboration with Air Liquid Company Chakan organized a commendable tree plantation drive at Bahirwadi on 20th July.

The event, which aimed to promote greenery and ecological balance, witnessed an enthusiastic participation of 150 NSS volunteers who actively contributed to the cause. The plantation took place at various locations within Bahirwadi, including the village premises and along the roadside.

The tree plantation drive was inaugurated by Dr. Shirish Pingale, Principal, he emphasized the significance of tree plantation in mitigating environmental challenges. Dr. H. M. Jare (Principal of Sahebraoji Butte Patil Mahavidyalaya) and Mr. Kailas Pacharane, Registrar, graced the occasion and extended his support to the noble cause.

Under the guidance of NSS Program Officer, Dr. Ganesh Dhumaal, Dr. Prabhakar Jagtap and Dr. Kirti Nitaware, the NSS committee members, including Dr. Sagar Theurkar, Prof.

Nilesh Barane, and Prof. Jayashree Gogavale, NSS volunteers actively participated in planting a diverse range of trees. A total of 225 saplings, including Kadulimb (wild jujube), Naral (coconut), Badam (almond), Amba (mango), Bamboo, Sitaphal (custard apple), Jambhul (black plum), Vad (banyan), and Pimpal (banyan fig), were successfully planted during the event.

Bahirwadi village's Sarpanch, Mrs. Vasudhatai Ankush Rakshe, along with her husband, Mr. Ankush Rakshe, expressed their wholehearted support for the noble initiative and actively participated in the tree plantation drive.

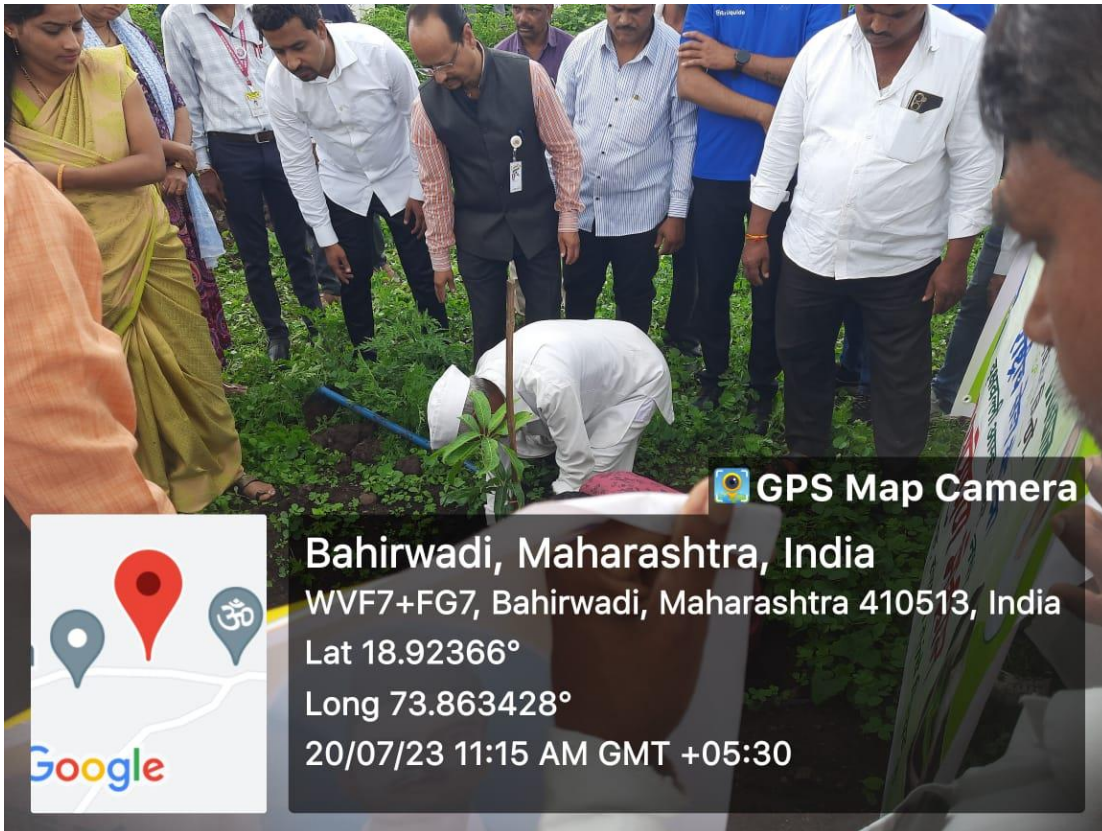

The NSS volunteers took an oath during the event, pledging to protect and nurture the trees they planted, symbolizing their commitment to ensuring a greener and healthier future for Bahirwadi.

Dr. P. R. Jagtap, NSS PO, expressed his gratitude to all the participants, including the volunteers and the villagers, for their dedication and tireless efforts in making the event successful.

The tree plantation drive not only added to the natural beauty of Bahirwadi but also served as a great learning experience for the volunteers. It reinforced the significance of environmental conservation and the collective responsibility we all bear in safeguarding our planet.
