REPORT

On August 24, 2023, a rally was organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) department to commemorate the birth anniversary of Hutatma Shivaram Hari Rajguru. The event also included paying tribute to Hutatma Rajguru. The rally, as well as the tribute program, took place in the presence of dignitaries and officials. The Vice-President of Khed Taluka Shikshak Prasark Mandal's, Hon. Nanasahab Takalkar, Senior Director Hon. Mr. Balasaheb Sandbhor, Hon. Hiran Anna Satkar, College Principal Dr. Shirish Pingale, Vice-Principal of the Science faculty Dr. V. D. Kulkarni, Vice-Principal of the Arts faculty Dr. Sanjay Shinde, Registrar Mr. Kailas Pacharane, and all the professors of the college were actively present at the event. Additionally, officials from the National Service Scheme department, along with a significant number of volunteers, actively participated in the program. The rally was organized to promote awareness about the contributions of Hutatma Shivaram Hari Rajguru and inspire the spirit of service among the youth. The event served as a platform for paying homage to the great patriot and freedom fighter. The college management, along with the NSS department, coordinated the activities seamlessly, ensuring the success of the program. The involvement of students, faculty, and local authorities reflected the community's commitment to preserving and celebrating the legacy of Hutatma Shivaram Hari Rajguru. The event not only marked a significant day in history but also fostered a sense of unity and patriotism among the participants. We extend our gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of this meaningful event.
